About the exam

Taken with your state medical chamber: a patient interview, written documentation and a doctor-to-doctor case presentation.

Level	C1 medical German
Taken with	Your state medical chamber (Landesärztekammer)
Parts	Patient interview, documentation, doctor-to-doctor presentation
Length	About 60 minutes

Who the course is for

Doctors with B2 German preparing for the FSP.

What you will study

Patient interview, documentation and case-presentation practice in the FSP format.

- Anamnese: taking a patient history in German
- Dokumentation: writing the Arztbrief
- Arzt-Arzt-Gespräch: presenting the case to a colleague
- Aufklärung: explaining procedures and getting consent
- Medical terminology: German and Latin terms side by side

- Full simulations of the three parts with feedback

What your course includes

- Live online classes
  Every class is taught live by your tutor, with interactive sessions where you ask questions as you go.
- Recordings for 6 months
  Missed a class on a night shift? Every session is recorded and stays available to you for six months.
- PDF notes from your tutor
  Your tutor shares PDF notes for the course, so you revise from the same material you were taught.
- MCQ solving together
  Your tutor works through exam-style questions with you and explains the reasoning behind each answer.
- Free mock exams
  Mock exams in the format of your exam are included in your course at no extra cost.
- One-to-one classes
  Prefer to study alone with a tutor? One-to-one classes are available for every course on request.

The green signal

Booking an exam too early is expensive. Your tutor follows your mock results and your work in class, and gives you the green signal when you are ready to book. The green signal is your tutor's honest judgement of your readiness. It is not a guarantee of a pass.

Common questions

Who runs the FSP?
The medical chamber (Ärztekammer) of the German state where you apply.

What happens in the FSP?
You interview a simulated patient, write up the case, then present it to a doctor examiner, all in German at C1 level.
