Who the course is for

Doctors planning to work in Germany, from complete beginners to B1 and B2 learners.

What you will study

Level-by-level German with a medical focus, from your first lesson to a B2 certificate and on to C1.

- A1 and A2: everyday German from your first lesson
- B1: speaking and writing independently
- B2: the level most medical chambers ask for, with exam practice
- C1: advanced German, leading into medical German
- Grammar, vocabulary, listening and speaking in every class

What your course includes

- Live online classes
  Every class is taught live by your tutor, with interactive sessions where you ask questions as you go.
- Recordings for 6 months
  Missed a class on a night shift? Every session is recorded and stays available to you for six months.
- PDF notes from your tutor
  Your tutor shares PDF notes for the course, so you revise from the same material you were taught.
- MCQ solving together
  Your tutor works through exam-style questions with you and explains the reasoning behind each answer.
- Free mock exams
  Mock exams in the format of your exam are included in your course at no extra cost.
- One-to-one classes
  Prefer to study alone with a tutor? One-to-one classes are available for every course on request.

The green signal

Booking an exam too early is expensive. Your tutor follows your mock results and your work in class, and gives you the green signal when you are ready to book. The green signal is your tutor's honest judgement of your readiness. It is not a guarantee of a pass.

Common questions

Which German level do I need?
Most medical chambers ask for general German at B2, followed by medical German at C1, tested in the Fachsprachprüfung.

Can I start as a complete beginner?
Yes. Classes run at every level from A1.
